J. Smyth Carter, Esq.,
521 Markham Street,
Toronto.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I am afraid that the question of Home Rule is such a wide one that it would be almost impossible for me to outline the arguments as you suggest, particularly as I have not been able to give a great deal of attention to the matter. However, I might suggest that you will find two articles on the subject which will probably give you the arguments for your side. One is by the Right Honourable A. J. Balfour in the "University Magazine", I think in October, and the other is on "Home Rule in Ireland" in the last issue of a magazine entitled "The Round Table". Both of these are very interesting. Probably Dr. G. H. Locke of the Public Library would be able to get both magazines for you.

Yours sincerely,

President.
